* Port Moresby Road Runners (POMRR) has been conducting running events on the streets of Papua New Guinea's capital for 40 years. All runners, joggers & walkers are invited to participate. People with disabilities are especially welcome. Whether training for the 2020 Olympics or just in need of fresh air and friendly company, Road Runners is for you. No one is too fast, too slow or too old. Participate at your own pace and at your own risk. Events start @ 5.00 pm unless otherwise indicated. Entry fee for each event is 20 toea. Be at the venue 10 minutes before start time for race briefing. For all POMRR enquiries call Simon Nutley on 7200 3295 or snutley@fiocconutley.com.pg. For results and other news read The Post-Courier. And listen to NBC radio on Paul Taumik Jnr's National Sports program on Monday and Friday mornings. This edition of the Calendar was issued on 17 August 2019.
